All troops will report to division chiefs at 7 o'clock Saturday morning. Tagging will continue until 5 o'clock in the evening.

Troops Will Advertise "Go-to-Church" Sunday

About 2,000 posters advertising the "Go to Church Sunday, April, 5," movement, will be distributed this week by Boy Scouts of Washington. Each troop will have about 190 of these, so that there will be only about four posters for each boy, and it is expected the work will be done quickly and effectively.

Charles Thurtell has now filed application for several merit badges and has passed four tests. Graeme Small has passed four tests. Graeme Small-wood besides obtaining his Eagle Scout badge, has filed a number of additional merit badge applications, and has finished three of these ex-aminations. Arthur Blameslee has filed twenty-one applications and has finished five tests.

filed twenty-one applications and has finished five tests.

We now have one tenderfoot scout, twelve second-class scouts, three who have nearly finished their first-class tests, and three full first-class scouts. We think this is a good showing for a troop which has been organized only nine months.

Very truly yours, SCOUT SCRIBE, TROOP $2.

Members of our troop, No. 6, are now beginning to take part in a good many activities Our last hike was very successful. We went about two miles through woods and over hills, and found a good many curious things. John O'Connor found five curiosities. At about noon we stopped and cooked lunch and played "hare and hounds" for a while Laurence Wilkerson has been admit-ted to our troop. He passed the tender-foot examination at our last meeting. Four more boys are preparing to take their tenderfoot examinations. The troop is now recovering from the depression due to the illness of our scoutmaster. and expect to have a very successful spring and summer. Very truly yours, EDWARD E. FISHER, Scout Scribe, Troop 6.

To the Scout Editor:

The Washington Birthday celebration of the troop at Takoma, was a great success. George Abrans, Percy Milner, Russell Pettitt, Benjamin Davis, William Kroll, and Howard Catley were tablets.

The troop marched into the Preshy-terian Church, where the exhibition was given, and provided the following

Bugling, Denslow Eggleston and Renneth Harries; flag ra'sing by Ban Davis and George Abrams; tenderfoot examination on the flag. Beverly Galloway; first aid and bandaging. Assistant Scoutmaster Louis Gosorn Lloyd Harrison, Clinton Allard, Pnil McKenney, William Kroll, Howard Gatley, Harold Harrison, Ben Davis, and Beverly Galloway; signaling, Den Egg'eston, Kenneth Harries, Donaid Stewart, Beverly Galloway and Lloyd Gosorn; hand wrestling, cock fighting and tug of war by members of the entire troop. The program closed with the singing of America by the audience and the America by the audience and the owing of tap by the 'roop bugiers. Very truly yours.

To the Scout Editor:

Affairs connected with Troop 32 have started off well under the new first talk given to the boys when he took charge of the troop, Mr. Locke told us what he expected to do along the lines of scout work, games and The buildings used for the camp, as well as the docks and floats, will be constructed from lumber cut on the

Troop Plans Course of Illustrated Lectures

Members of Troop 51, E. L. Maschmeyer, scoutmaster, are planning a series of illustrated lectures. The boy won the Edison meving picture machine given last fall to the troop selling the greatest number of tickets to the Scout photoplay, "Making a Boy have been sent from Boy Scout head-scout," and recently exchanged this for a stereopticon lantern.

It is proposed to devote a good deal of attention to animal and plant studies and the boys will make lantern sildes of their collections and photographs which will be used in demonstrating during the lectures.

More than 2,000 copies of the new prospectus for Camp Archibald Butt have been sent from Boy Scout head-quarters. The publication is a booklet of about twenty pages with pictures of scout activities carried on last year. A handsome replica of last year's camp medal and photographs of leading scout officials of Washington and Ba'timore are features of the illustrations.
